

Bless Your Neighbor resource list

Asking "Where do I go from here?"

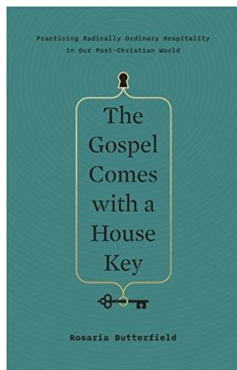

Let the resources below continue to equip and encourage you to be intentional with the people God has placed you around!

[Event] Q Commons | Oct 25, 7-9pm | Leesburg

This is a periodic local event coordinated by Q Ideas (their mission: stay curious, think well, advance good). The theme of the Oct 25 Q Commons is hospitality and how to intentionally and thoughtfully engage with those God has placed us around. See details & register at fall.qcommons.com.

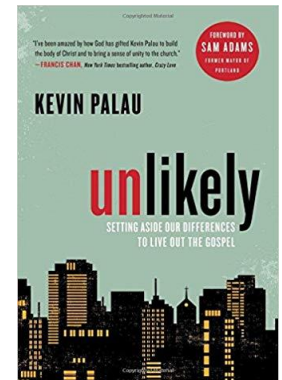

[Book] The Gospel Comes with a House Key | Butterfield

From Amazon.com description: With the story of her conversion as a backdrop, Rosaria Butterfield invites us into her home to show us how God can use this same “radical, ordinary hospitality” she experienced to bring the gospel to our lost friends and neighbors. Such hospitality sees our homes and lives as not our own, but as God’s tools for the furtherance of his kingdom as we welcome those who look, think, believe, and act differently from us into our everyday, sometimes messy lives—helping them see what true Christian faith really looks like. [Book] Unlikely: Setting Aside Our Differences to Live Out the Gospel | Palau

10 years ago, Kevin Palau (evangelist Luis Palau’s son) and pastors in Portland, Oregon started an experiment to see how local churches and believers could band together and tangibly bless their neighbors and city. As one of the most unchurched city in the country, these stories from Portland should energize the rest of us to have a kingdom mindset as well and believe God has us where we are on purpose.
