

Who's Really in Charge Here?

Isaiah 10:5-34

Outline:	Assyria: God's Instrument				Israel: God's Remnant				Reality: God's Sovereignty
	Dueling Purposes		Contrasting Appraisals		Singular Director	God's Works...		God's power...		Differing Perspectives
Divisions	God's declaration	Assyria's assertion	What God will do	What Assyria will take credit for	God's Sovereignty	on Assyria	for Israel	for Israel	against Assyria	Assyria's perception	God's reality
Verses	5-6	7-11	12	13-14	15	16-19	20-23	24-25	26-27	28-32	33-34
General summary:	God claims absolute sovereignty over His creation, regardless of His creation's awareness of His supremacy over them; God will not allow His creation to claim sovereignty over Him.		God is in control over His creation, regardless of His creation's acknowledgement of His sovereignty.		God is sovereign over His creation, regardless of His creation's attempts to be sovereign instead.	An adversary to be destroyed		A remnant rescued		God's sovereignty over His creation will continue in the future, regardless of His creation's aspirations
Notes:											